Announcement of Position and Policies on Lowering Investment Units

GMO Financial Gate, Inc. (the "Company") hereby announces its position and policies on lowering the investment units of the Company's shares as follows.

1. Position on Lowering Investment Units

The Company recognizes that lowering investment units is one of the effective measures to enhance the liquidity of its shares and create an environment in which a broader range of investors can invest more easily.

2. Policies on Lowering Investment Units

The Company implemented a stock split at a ratio of two shares for each share of common stock as of January 17, 2023. While no specific measures or timing for any further lowering of investment units have been determined at this time, the Company will continue to consider appropriate actions, taking into account factors such as the share price level, supply and demand of the Company's shares, changes in shareholder composition, and other relevant circumstances, as well as the advantages and disadvantages for the Company's shareholders.
